Max-- Thanks for your note. When I sent my email last evening, I didn't realize that you were out of the country.

I'm out of the office today -- [Ex. 6 Personal Privacy (PP)] -- but will be back in the office tomorrow. I believe there is a 6-hour time difference between DC and Germany. I could call you tomorrow at either 6am DC/noon Germany, 7am DC/1pm Germany, or 9am DC/3pm Germany. Would any of those work for you?

Max—

I hope all is well. I was wondering if you might have some time for a quick chat sometime over the next couple of days.

Thanks!
